"Master and Man"

Scully grabs the captain's arm as he is about to strike Merrill. Meanwhile Petroff and Olga leave Nome for St. Michaels where they are tracked by Scully who forces his way into their cabin and is about to seize Olga when her father comes in and starts to throttle Scully. At his daughter's request he lets Scully go. Scully returns with Dan Hogan, a ruffian, who aids him plot against Petroff.

Merrill helps the captain and mate quell a mutiny aboard the "Jimsy". Forgetting his indebtedness to Merrill, the captain remembering only his old grudge, attempts to detain him aboard the ship. Merrill is forced to fight for his freedom and has to knock out the captain before the latter will pay him the seaman's wage coming to him. He goes ashore and aids Olga and her father to escape from a blazing room set afire by a lamp overturned in their fight with Scully and Hogan.
